

STRUCTURING YOUR

Club Meetings

When planning out your club meetings, this structure can be a good place to start. Most clubs do not need to spend much time on the business portion even though that's the part many people think of! The education portion is typically the longest and most beneficial part.