9. Every animal must be housed on the premises of the exhibitor, chapter land lab, or 4-H land lab. If another location is used, it must be stated on entry form at the time of the initial tag-in. This place will be approved by NFLSS board of directors. All animals are subject to an unannounced premise check. If the entry is found not to be raised on the premise, the entry will be subject to disqualification.
10. AT SHOW CHECK-IN ON FEBRUARY 17th, 2025, ANIMALS WILL ONLY BE WEIGHED ONE TIME.
11. All participants in 4-H or FFA are required to complete and turn in a record book for each entry before the annual show and sale
12. Showmanship awards will be given to the top junior (ages 8-10), the top intermediate (ages 11-13), and the top senior (ages 14-19) showmen in both the cattle and swine shows. To be eligible to win a showmanship award an exhibitor must follow the approved guidelines for cattle and swine showmanship. Exhibitors must show their own animal with no exceptions. Chapter animals will be appointed by advisors and told to NFLSS by final weigh in. An individual may win awards as many times as he/she is showing an animal. Herdsmen's awards will be made in the cattle and swine barns. (Showmanship guidelines are available online.) September 1, 2024 is the date to determine age category. For example, a child that turns 11 after September 1 will still show as a junior.
13. Exhibitors must provide water containers and feed troughs for cattle and swine entries. All exhibitors must provide feed for their animals.
14. No individual animal may be shown in more than one class with the exception for the beef entries that are home grown.

15. All single entries in the cattle and swine shows must be shown in the show ring by the exhibitor except when two singles are entered in the same weight class by an exhibitor, or a satisfactory reason is given to and approved by the show management.
16. Youth entries will be judged using the modified Danish system.
17. The decision of the judges is final.
18. Before payment of an animal is sent to the 4-H/FFA participant, a copy of the thank you letter sent to the buyer must be given to the Ag teacher, club leader or Extension Agent. Participants are encouraged to contact their own buyers when applicable. If a check is lost by the exhibitor, the bank stop payment fee will be subtracted from the new check. You have 120 days from check date to cash. If check is not cashed and you need a reprinted check the bank fee will be subtracted from new check.
19. A 5% sales fee will be deducted by the Association from the price received by the exhibitor to help defray expenses of the sale. Along with the beef council fee and pork council fee.
