FOOD SCIENCE MOLECULAR GASTRONOMY 4-H CAMP

This is a brand-new science camp based on food and molecular gastronomy experiments. This is not your typical science or cooking class but a super fun combination of both. How often can you eat your experiments? In day 1 we will focus on the new science of edible food wrappers which includes making yummy, popping juice bubbles, and chewy boba using the science of cold oil spherification and then we will study the science that goes into making ice cream. In day 2 we will be focusing on the science of sugar and crystallization. We will make Dragon's Beard candy (hand pulled cotton candy), and a candy to wrap in our food wrappers (we will vote on candy type on day 1). We will then cover the role of foams in food and science as we make meringue cookies. Due to safety and hygiene concerns all students must wear close toed shoes and have hair pulled back or under a hat. Please bring a lunch, and water. Questions, please email 4Hadvancedscientists@gmail.com. All cancellations must be at least 2wks prior to the first day of this camp.

How to register for camp!

Go to the St. Johns County 4-H Website at <http://sfyl.ifas.ufl.edu/stjohns/4-h-youth-development/> and click on Summer Day Camps.

Step 1

Youth MUST register online at the individual EVENTBRITE links listed under each camp. Be sure to enter campers name and not parents name. Be sure your child is the correct 4-H age for each camp they are registering for in Eventbrite. 4-H Age is determined by how old campers were on September 1, 2021, NOT their age at the time of the camp, unless otherwise noted. Payment can be made by credit card online. Please Note: There is a non-refundable processing fee if you are paying with a credit card. If you want to pay by check or plan to use 4-H Clover Awards for payment please contact the 4-H Office.

Step 2

All campers must also be registered in 4-H Online. This allows camp leaders to have health, contact and allergy information. Go to <https://v2.4honline.com> to register as a youth member if you are not a current 4-H member. Create a family profile and add your child as a youth member. You will need to join the Summer Camps Club when you are prompted to join a club.

Please contact the 4-H Office if you have any questions at 904-209-0430 Ext. 4780 or email Kellie Anderson at kelliecanderson@ufl.edu

MASK Welcome!
