

Frequently Asked Questions 2022-2023 St. Johns County 4-H Clover Awards

- Q.) When are Clover Awards due to the 4-H Office?
A.) The Clover Award application and accompanying materials must be turned in to the SJC 4-H office by June 1, 2023 at 4:00pm to qualify for a Clover Award.
- Q.) Where do I get the Clover Award application?
A.) The Clover Award requirements and paper applications are available in the 4-H office. For electronic versions, download and fill in or print the application from the St. Johns County 4-H website. DO NOT use the form on the state 4-H website as it is different and will not be accepted.
- Q.) Does the Clover Award application or any part of it need to be handwritten?
A.) The application, reports, record book, and essays can be neatly handwritten or typed. The applications on the SJC 4-H website can be downloaded and filled in on the computer or printed and handwritten.
- Q.) Can my Clover Award application and record books be turned in electronically?
A.) No. Only hard copies of the Clover Award application and record book will be accepted.
- Q.) What do I do if my 4-H Club Leader isn't available to sign the paperwork?
A.) Clover Award applications should be given to your leader to sign long before they are due. The club meeting before June 1, 2023 is the best time to get your club leader's signature.
- Q.) What happens if I turn my Clover Award application and accompanying materials in after June 1, 2023?
A.) Your materials will be judged and given comments, but you will be ineligible for a Clover Award and receive a green ribbon for your record book.
- Q.) I have run out of room on my Clover Award application. Can I put the extra information on an additional piece of paper?
A.) Yes. Once you run out of room, you may use a separate piece of paper if it contains the types of information required on the form.
- Q.) If I am an At-Large member, do I need to have my Clover Awards signed?
A.) Yes. The 4-H Staff or the Adult Volunteer in charge of your event, activity, or project must sign each line as defined on your Clover Award application.
- Q.) What is the Wildcard poster for Cloverbuds?
A.) The Wildcard poster is a noncompetitive 14x22 inch poster about your 4-H project. Various art media such as markers, paint, colored pencils & crayons can be used. Poster is due in the 4-H Office by June 1, 2023.
- Q.) What is the Wildcard interview for Juniors, Intermediates, and Seniors?
A.) An interview with one 4-H alumnus (cannot be a relative) about their experiences in 4-H can be substituted for one of the requirements, except record books. A written report must be turned in to your leader and the 4-H agent. If you don't know any 4-H alumni, contact the 4-H Office for alumni you can interview. The interview report is due in the 4-H Office when you turn in your Clover Award application by June 1, 2023.
- Q.) Can I use a Wildcard as a substitute for my Clover Award requirements?
A.) Yes, it can be substituted for one Clover Award requirement - although it cannot substitute record books, project reports, or Senior portfolio requirements.

Q.) Can I count my summer 4-H experiences toward my Clover Awards?

A.) Yes, summer camp experiences and other 4-H summer activities can be counted toward Clover Awards, however, each event can only be counted once. For example, one 2-day day camp counts as one event. However, two different 1-day camps count as two events. Please be sure to count all the activities you participated in during the date range identified at the top of the Clover Award Application form.

Q.) If I attend a Horse Show or other all-day event, and participate in 4 classes at that event, do the classes count as 4 separate competitions or activities?

A.) No, they will count as one competition or activity because they are parts of the same event.

Q.) If I participate in the same contest at two different fairs, can I count it as 2 competitive events?

A.) Yes, as each occurred at a different event. Also, if you participate in more than one judging event at the same fair, this would be counted as two different competitive events or activities because they are unrelated. For example, a Consumer Choices contest and the Plant Identification contest at the same fair are counted as two competitions or activities.

Q.) I entered 3 photos in the photography contest, can I count this as 3 competitions?

A.) No, this would be counted as one competition. The same goes for arts and crafts; multiple entries in the same competition are counted as one competition.

Q.) I taught a craft at summer camp, but I also participated in making crafts at camp, can I count this as teaching and an activity?

A.) No, it must be one or the other. Each event, activity, and contest can only be counted once for your Clover Award packet.

Q.) If I give a 4-H talk to my church or classroom, can it count as a talk to a community group?

A.) Yes, if your talk is about 4-H and/or your 4-H project and to a group of 10 or more people who represent the community as an organized unit. Suggested time is 15 or more minutes including questions and answers.

Q.) The Clover Award Standards say “reimbursement” instead of “scholarship”. What does a summer activity or camp reimbursement mean?

A.) Youth must pay for camps or activities at the time of registration, regardless of whether they plan to turn in a Clover Award. Reimbursements will be issued in the first week of August.

Q.) Can I use my Clover Award scholarship toward 4-H Legislature?

A.) Yes, in addition to summer day or residential camps, youth may apply their Clover Award scholarship to other 4-H events that take place during the summer months, including 4-H Legislature and 4-H University. Clover Award scholarships must be used during the summer months that follow the application deadline.

Q.) I am not sure what counts for the Clover Award requirements?

A.) Please check with your 4-H Club Leader or contact the 4-H Office. Remember that all activities counted on the Clover Awards must be 4-H sponsored or affiliated with 4-H.

Q.) If I attend District Council meetings two different times, can I count this as two different activities?

A.) Yes, your attendance will count as different activities. If you participate in District Council community service, you can apply that to the service requirement in the Clover Award. If you participate in a District Council-sponsored activity or event held at a different time than the regular meeting such as a dance, that qualifies as a separate activity.

Q.) What counts as a District activity?

A.) A District Council meeting and District Events are two examples of District Level events.

Q.) I see that Parent/Guardian support is required to receive Clover Award reimbursements. What is expected?

A.) Parent/guardian involvement is required for all 4-H youth. In addition to parents supporting their child in their 4-H project work, parents of youth receiving 4-H Clover Awards are also required to assist with 4-H events and activities coordinated through the St. Johns County 4-H Office, not the club. Driving the 4-H'er to meetings and helping them with their record book does not satisfy the parent/guardian involvement requirement. Examples of COUNTY level support where parents are needed include:

- 4-H Marketing Booth at Community Events-Work information booth
- 4-H Awards Banquet/Fashion Show-Set up/take down, food monitor, decorate
- 4-H Barn Dance-Decorate, set up/take down, monitor food stations, entertainment
- 4-H 5K Races - Cottonmouth & Spud Run -Work events and get sponsorships.
- Check with the 4-H Office for MORE opportunities.
